

Position: TIG WELDER/FABRICATOR

Qualifications:

- Welding School or previous welding experience
- TIG welding experience required
- Ability to read and follow written and verbal instructions
- Ability to read and understand blue prints including weld specs
- Ability to problem solve and build parts from blue prints
- Basic Math Skills
- Employee must be physically able to lift up to 50 pounds on a regular basis throughout the day
- Ability to Quality Control parts produced on this equipment.
- Ability to perform the required Daily Maintenance for this equipment

Authority and Responsibilities:

- Employee is responsible to Quality Control Product or Services that he performs according to the blue prints and or shop packet documents
- Employee is held accountable for the quality of product produced.
- Employee is responsible to document his inspection of parts by initialing the "Inspected By" block on the time card showing the work in progress.
- Employee is responsible to accurately measure and record labor times.
- Employee is responsible to accurately record all material used.
- Employee is required to perform and document all Operator Maintenance
- Employee is required to follow safe work habits and report any accidents to his Superior.
- Employee is required to help out as required at other areas as management sees fit.